

social cinema

stories of struggle & change

The UW-Madison Havens Center's Annual Film Series explores important contemporary social topics from critical perspectives. Each screening will be followed by a discussion of the issues explored in the film. The series is free* and open to all.

■ As Goes Janesville

Dir. Brad Lichtenstein/2012/USA/88 minutes

The story of how Janesville struggles to recover and reinvent itself after the loss of its century-old General Motors plant.

Wednesday, October 10, 7 pm

Marquee Theater, Union South

Co-sponsored by PBS, South Central Federation of Labor, Labor and Working Class Studies Project

■ Last Call at the Oasis

Dir. Jessica Yu/2011/USA/105 minutes

A powerful argument for why the global water crisis will be the central issue facing our world.

Wednesday, October 17, 7 pm

Marquee Theater, Union South

Co-sponsored by 1000 Friends of Wisconsin, Madison Environmental Advocates, Sustain Dane, Madison Rafah Sister City Project

■ Better This World

Dirs. Kelly Duane de la Vega, Katie Galloway/2011/USA/93 minutes

A story of idealism, loyalty, crime and betrayal.

Wednesday, October 24, 7 pm

Marquee Theater, Union South

Sponsored by The Progressive Magazine, ACLU of Wisconsin

■ We're Not Broke

Dirs. Victoria Bruce, Karin Hayes/2012/USA/81 minutes

The story of how U.S. corporations have been able to hide over a trillion dollars.

Tuesday, October 30, 7 pm

Marquee Theater, Union South

Co-sponsored by the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, WISPIRG, Center for Media and Democracy, Liberty Tree Foundation

■ Detropia

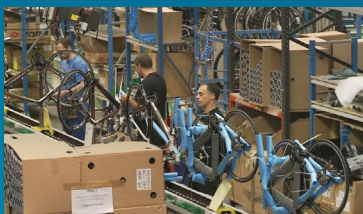

Dirs. Heidi Ewing, Rachel Grady/2012/USA/91 minutes

The story of Detroit and its struggle to survive post-industrial America

Wednesday, November 7, 7 pm

Marquee Theater, Union South

Co-sponsored by South Central Federation of Labor, Labor and Working Class Studies Project

■ Shift Change

Dirs. Mark Dworkin, Melissa Young/2012/USA/70 minutes

Stories of employee owned businesses that compete successfully in today's economy

Thursday, November 15, 7 pm

Barrymore Theatre, 2090 Atwood Avenue

*Ticket Price: $7.00 Advanced; $8.00 at the door – fundraiser for MadWorC

Co-sponsored by Madison Worker Cooperatives, UW Center for Cooperatives

The 2012 Social Cinema Film Series is sponsored by the UW-Madison Havens Center in collaboration with the Wisconsin Union Directorate Film Committee.

www.havenssocialcinema.org
HAVENS CENTER

